

Reasonable Accommodation Policy

RCHDC is committed to providing equal access to all its' programs and services. Both the ADA and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act protect any individual with a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits that person in some major life activity, and any individual who has a history of, or who is regarded as having, such an impairment. If you or a member of your household has a disability, you have the right to request a reasonable accommodation in order to have equal opportunity of use and enjoyment of programs and services provided by RCHDC.

A reasonable accommodation is some modification or change that the company can make to policies or procedures that will assist an otherwise eligible applicant/tenant with a disability to take advantage of the program, as long as the changes does not create discrimination elsewhere. Compliance actions may include reasonable accommodations as well as structural modifications to the unit or premises, to the extent these reasonable accommodations can be implemented without creating undue financial or administrative burdens to the property.

If you or a member of your household has a disability and wish to request a reasonable accommodation, please notify the Property Manager. He/She will assist you in the reasonable accommodation process. You have the right to request an accommodation at any time during your application process and tenancy.
